Eighteen-year-old Claire Collin's senior year of high school changed her life. Adam Meade was the first guy she ever loved, the only guy she'd ever let in, and she learned a lesson about love the hard way.

Wrapped in a world of problems and reeling with the complications of his decisions, eighteen-year-old Adam is searching for the one thing he never should've let go - Claire.

With emotions tattered and torn and family problems looming everywhere, moving on is easier said than done.

College was supposed to be a fresh start, but no one saw this coming.
